

Louisville Democrat.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY

HARVEY, HUGHES & CO.

Office—East side Third Street, between Market and Jefferson.

LOUISVILLE, K.Y.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.—MAY 22, 1861.

Notice to Daily Subscribers in the Country.

It is useless, perhaps, to repeat it; but, henceforth, no paper in arsenals will be forwarded. It will be stopped to the day. It is impossible for us to continue to those careless of their accounts.

Those who fail to receive their paper hereafter, upon taking the trouble to ascertain, will find that their subscriptions are in arrears.

CITY COURT.—Tuesday, May 21.—Francis Eubanks and Mary Mills, drunk and disorderly conduct; discharged. F. Higley, drunk and abuse family, $200 for three months. Michael Sheay, J. McLeary, and Dan Sheay, disorderly conduct and abuse of family; bail in $100 to answer.

THE ENCAMPMENT.—It has been for sometime expected that an encampment of the State Guard would soon be necessary. The necessity has now arrived, and with it, the announcement of a camp, to be held tomorrow, on the south bank of Salt river, 10 miles from the city. The Nashville Railroad passes near to the camp; and six companies of the State Guard leave by that road for the encampment this afternoon at five o'clock. Gen. Buckner has command of the camp, and no member of the State Guard who desires to know the duties of a soldier will fail to present himself at the camp. It is somewhat remarkable that during the present crisis, the donations for such subsistence as is necessary for camp service, were provided in the city almost without solicitation.

ATTENTION ANDERSON HOME GUARDS, COMPANY D.—Every member is notified to attend a meeting on Wednesday evening, May 22, at 7 o'clock, at the Union Engine House Hall, Jefferson street, below Sixth street. Business of vital importance is to be attended to, and every member should be present.

PROBLEM FOR UNCLE ABE.—If it cost Uncle Sam forty million of dollars and over so many lives, to conquer Billy Bowlegs, how many million of dollars, and how many lives, will it cost Uncle Abe, who since Sam by a— sight, to conquer the ten secession States? Do you give it up? It would have been better if you had done that long ago. Well! we can't answer definitely; but it will certainly cost more than it is worth.

SERIOUS CHARGE.—The United States District Attorney in New York, on Thursday, applied to Judge Nelson in the United States Circuit Court, for a warrant for the arrest of a certain party charged under the process of the Recorder's Court of Philadelphia, with the murder of one of the soldiers while going through Baltimore. Judge Nelson denied the application on the ground that the Court could not grant a Federal warrant on the process of a State Judge.

A REVOLUTIONARY SWORD.—The Scottsville (Va.) Register says that Lieut. Lewellen, of the Scottsville Guard, has been presented with a sword used in the revolutionary war by Mr. Cole, the grandfather of Mr. Thomas S. Cole, on Green Mountain. It contains seven stars on one side, representing the first seven States formed, and on the other the old thirteen.

ARREST OF A CORRESPONDENT.—A man named Underhill, a violent Abolitionist, and known as the correspondent of the New York Tribune, was taken from the mail train at Harper's Ferry, between eleven and twelve o'clock, and placed in the encampment. Underhill, when taken, was returning from the Wheeling Convention of Western Virginia. His arrest and detention was made by the Virginia military authorities.

DEPARTED FOR THE CAMP.—A very large concourse of people assembled at the court house yesterday to witness the departure of a battalion of the State Guard for the encampment at Salt river. The companies appeared to be fully equipped for their campaign drill, and left the city in good spirits, carrying with them the good wishes of wives, mothers, and sweethearts. We shall have regular bulletins of their camp life, and shall keep our readers advised of all their sorrows by flood and field.

SMALL FOX AT FORTRESS MONROE.—The Norfolk correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch states that the small-fox is raging among the troops at Fortress Monroe, and adds that the physicians of that city are desirous of volunteering their services. Letters from the troops in the fortresses, published in Northern papers, make no mention of any disease prevailing among them.

THE HOPERS of the steamer Kentucky, Capt. Lee, are reported as having exploded in the Mississippi, below Memphis, on Monday, involving the loss of several lives, including that of the second bar-keeper. The Kentucky was built by the Louisville and Cincinnati Mail Company, but had passed into the hands of the Memphis and Vickburg Packet Company.

RENEWING THE OATH OF ALLEGIANCE.—On Saturday last the garrison at Fort Hamilton renewed the oath of allegiance to the United States. The officers and men are the same that served in Fort Sumter. The oath was taken by all at once. At Harrisburg the first part of the oath was repeated by the entire assemblage of spectators.

A STRANGE SPECTACLE was witnessed, on the Illinois river, a few days ago, says the St. Louis Democrat. In tow of the Resolute, going North, was a barge, on which reposed a two story frame house. This house is the property of a man who lived in it this city. Becoming alarmed at the late hour, he had it removed and taken to a free State. His family went along with him. While going up the river, the man's dog sat in the door, the cat reclined lazily at a window, and the good wife carried on the household work as usual.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer says "the tariff of five per cent. upon Kentucky money has created a large amount of difficulty in market." Many persons refused to put up with the discount, and preferred going home with empty baskets. Those who took the money at par sold their stock in trade, while others, who insisted upon doing a brokerage business, returned to the border State with nearly the same load they brought to town.

THE Bank of England is receiving on its exterior walls a coating recently invented, called silicatispoza, a species of enamel, which is easily applied, is waterproof, hardens immediately, and assumes the appearance of marble. This is a novel and elegant application.

It is said that Al. S. Hynes, of Bardstown, Ky., has gone to Washington to join the United States Army.

appointed postmaster at Cannelton, Ind.

COL. A. F. RUDLER, the companion of Gen. Walker in Nicaragua, is raising a company in Augusta, Ga.

There are now in the Southern States over 2,000,000 of whites, between the ages of fifteen and fifty.

The pulp of potatoes scraped into water cleanses the flesh, kinds of salts without injury to the fabric of color.

The mail cars on the Southern Railroads are now lettered "C. S. Mail," instead of "U. S. Mail" as heretofore.

INDICTMENTS RETURNED.—The Grand Jury of the City Court yesterday returned forty-two indictments against offenders.

THREE brothers of Mr. Lamon, United States Marshal of the District of Columbia, are serving as volunteers at Harper's Ferry.

A bloody fight occurred in Huntington county, near Mt. Eads, one day last week, in which a man named John Parker was dangerously stabbed in the breast with a knife.

Wilson Samuels has been elected President, and Morgan R. Yewell, Isaac Miller and Abner King, Vice Presidents of the Nelson County Agricultural and Mechanical Association.

SPEAKING AT THE COURT HOUSE.—Hon. Robert Mallory, Union candidate to represent the Tenth Congressional district, will address his fellow-citizens in the east room of the Court-house, this evening at 7 o'clock.

The large sale of jewelry, watches, etc., will be continued this morning, at L. Kahn & Co.'s, Main street, where all in want, or deire of buying, will have a chance, as the lot will possibly be sold without reserve.

IT will be seen by our dispatches that North Carolina has seceded from the Union. This makes the eleventh State which has passed the ordinance of secession and arrayed itself in an attitude of hostility to the Federal Government at Washington.

NOTWITHSTANDING attempts have been made by certain persons to create dissensions between us and our sister cities of New Albany and Jeffersonville, our people are still on the most amicable terms with all the bordering places. May it ever be that.

Intelligence was received in St. Louis yesterday of the death of Capt. Derby, of the United States Army, widely known as "John Phenix." May some new Phenix arise from his ashes which shall rive his fame and equal the sparkle of his wit.

The city was unusually quiet last night. "The great white moon" shone in her most glorious splendor, and our people seemed to turn out in masses on the principal promenades to enjoy the balmy air, freighted, as it was, with the fragrance of the new blooming spring flowers.

RETURNED FROM TEXAS.—Major Cunningham, Paymaster U. S. A., and who was attached to the force under Major Sibley, who was captured in Texas, arrived at Washington City on Monday. He was taken prisoner with the rest, but managed to get off without giving any parole.

SALE OF BRANDY.—There was a sale on Wednesday at the Custom House in Richmond, Va., by the sheriff, of impounded brandy of good quality, seized in execution of a writ of attachment.

RESCUED.—That resolution to be published in the Louisville and Frankfort papers, addressed to the Hon. John Brown, has decided the race for Congress. We know him to be the choice of the people, and that he could be elected by an overwhelming vote, as the District is almost a unit for him. We regretfully recollect his services in the cause of freedom, and are anxious to do all we can for him.

RESOLVED.—That this resolution to be published in the Louisville and Frankfort papers, addressed to the Hon. John Brown, has decided the race for Congress. We know him to be the choice of the people, and that he could be elected by an overwhelming vote, as the District is almost a unit for him. We regretfully recollect his services in the cause of freedom, and are anxious to do all we can for him.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A distressed widow wants to know of the whereabouts of her son, Thomas Q. Fifteen. When last heard from, about five years ago, he was at Rochester, New York, since which time he has not been heard of. His name is not known, nor has his address been answered. If it meets the eye of any one knowing where he is, or what became of him, they will confer a great favor by writing. Address Mrs. Mary Cannon, care of Pat. O'Connor, 102 Franklin Street.

PUBLISHERS OF NEWSPAPERS will please give this an insertion in aid of the distressed mother.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A distressed widow wants to know of the whereabouts of her son, Thomas Q. Fifteen. When last heard from, about five years ago, he was at Rochester, New York, since which time he has not been heard of. His name is not known, nor has his address been answered. If it meets the eye of any one knowing where he is, or what became of him, they will confer a great favor by writing. Address Mrs. Mary Cannon, care of Pat. O'Connor, 102 Franklin Street.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A young girl named Estella Whitney, the daughter of a clergyman residing at Hornellsville, N. Y., formed a romantic attachment for one Captain Taylor's Zouaves, and determined to follow him to the South. She was captured at the fire, Mr. Nielson could not be found, but after it was over he was discovered lying on the ground, his face buried in the sand and badly burned by the things which had been thrown on him. It is supposed that waking and excited at all once, striking the ground and scalded at feet, below, and the sand killed him instantly.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A distressed widow wants to know of the whereabouts of her son, Thomas Q. Fifteen. When last heard from, about five years ago, he was at Rochester, New York, since which time he has not been heard of. His name is not known, nor has his address been answered. If it meets the eye of any one knowing where he is, or what became of him, they will confer a great favor by writing. Address Mrs. Mary Cannon, care of Pat. O'Connor, 102 Franklin Street.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A young girl named Estella Whitney, the daughter of a clergyman residing at Hornellsville, N. Y., formed a romantic attachment for one Captain Taylor's Zouaves, and determined to follow him to the South. She was captured at the fire, Mr. Nielson could not be found, but after it was over he was discovered lying on the ground, his face buried in the sand and badly burned by the things which had been thrown on him. It is supposed that waking and excited at all once, striking the ground and scalded at feet, below, and the sand killed him instantly.

BADGE OF DISTINCTION.—A correspondent to the Richmond paper suggests that, in the Wars of the Roses in England, the different parties were distinguished by different badges, as the Yorkists had a white rose, the Lancastrians a red rose, and the others a cross.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A young girl named Estella Whitney, the daughter of a clergyman residing at Hornellsville, N. Y., formed a romantic attachment for one Captain Taylor's Zouaves, and determined to follow him to the South. She was captured at the fire, Mr. Nielson could not be found, but after it was over he was discovered lying on the ground, his face buried in the sand and badly burned by the things which had been thrown on him. It is supposed that waking and excited at all once, striking the ground and scalded at feet, below, and the sand killed him instantly.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A young girl named Estella Whitney, the daughter of a clergyman residing at Hornellsville, N. Y., formed a romantic attachment for one Captain Taylor's Zouaves, and determined to follow him to the South. She was captured at the fire, Mr. Nielson could not be found, but after it was over he was discovered lying on the ground, his face buried in the sand and badly burned by the things which had been thrown on him. It is supposed that waking and excited at all once, striking the ground and scalded at feet, below, and the sand killed him instantly.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A young girl named Estella Whitney, the daughter of a clergyman residing at Hornellsville, N. Y., formed a romantic attachment for one Captain Taylor's Zouaves, and determined to follow him to the South. She was captured at the fire, Mr. Nielson could not be found, but after it was over he was discovered lying on the ground, his face buried in the sand and badly burned by the things which had been thrown on him. It is supposed that waking and excited at all once, striking the ground and scalded at feet, below, and the sand killed him instantly.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A young girl named Estella Whitney, the daughter of a clergyman residing at Hornellsville, N. Y., formed a romantic attachment for one Captain Taylor's Zouaves, and determined to follow him to the South. She was captured at the fire, Mr. Nielson could not be found, but after it was over he was discovered lying on the ground, his face buried in the sand and badly burned by the things which had been thrown on him. It is supposed that waking and excited at all once, striking the ground and scalded at feet, below, and the sand killed him instantly.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A young girl named Estella Whitney, the daughter of a clergyman residing at Hornellsville, N. Y., formed a romantic attachment for one Captain Taylor's Zouaves, and determined to follow him to the South. She was captured at the fire, Mr. Nielson could not be found, but after it was over he was discovered lying on the ground, his face buried in the sand and badly burned by the things which had been thrown on him. It is supposed that waking and excited at all once, striking the ground and scalded at feet, below, and the sand killed him instantly.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A young girl named Estella Whitney, the daughter of a clergyman residing at Hornellsville, N. Y., formed a romantic attachment for one Captain Taylor's Zouaves, and determined to follow him to the South. She was captured at the fire, Mr. Nielson could not be found, but after it was over he was discovered lying on the ground, his face buried in the sand and badly burned by the things which had been thrown on him. It is supposed that waking and excited at all once, striking the ground and scalded at feet, below, and the sand killed him instantly.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A young girl named Estella Whitney, the daughter of a clergyman residing at Hornellsville, N. Y., formed a romantic attachment for one Captain Taylor's Zouaves, and determined to follow him to the South. She was captured at the fire, Mr. Nielson could not be found, but after it was over he was discovered lying on the ground, his face buried in the sand and badly burned by the things which had been thrown on him. It is supposed that waking and excited at all once, striking the ground and scalded at feet, below, and the sand killed him instantly.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A young girl named Estella Whitney, the daughter of a clergyman residing at Hornellsville, N. Y., formed a romantic attachment for one Captain Taylor's Zouaves, and determined to follow him to the South. She was captured at the fire, Mr. Nielson could not be found, but after it was over he was discovered lying on the ground, his face buried in the sand and badly burned by the things which had been thrown on him. It is supposed that waking and excited at all once, striking the ground and scalded at feet, below, and the sand killed him instantly.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A young girl named Estella Whitney, the daughter of a clergyman residing at Hornellsville, N. Y., formed a romantic attachment for one Captain Taylor's Zouaves, and determined to follow him to the South. She was captured at the fire, Mr. Nielson could not be found, but after it was over he was discovered lying on the ground, his face buried in the sand and badly burned by the things which had been thrown on him. It is supposed that waking and excited at all once, striking the ground and scalded at feet, below, and the sand killed him instantly.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A young girl named Estella Whitney, the daughter of a clergyman residing at Hornellsville, N. Y., formed a romantic attachment for one Captain Taylor's Zouaves, and determined to follow him to the South. She was captured at the fire, Mr. Nielson could not be found, but after it was over he was discovered lying on the ground, his face buried in the sand and badly burned by the things which had been thrown on him. It is supposed that waking and excited at all once, striking the ground and scalded at feet, below, and the sand killed him instantly.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A young girl named Estella Whitney, the daughter of a clergyman residing at Hornellsville, N. Y., formed a romantic attachment for one Captain Taylor's Zouaves, and determined to follow him to the South. She was captured at the fire, Mr. Nielson could not be found, but after it was over he was discovered lying on the ground, his face buried in the sand and badly burned by the things which had been thrown on him. It is supposed that waking and excited at all once, striking the ground and scalded at feet, below, and the sand killed him instantly.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A young girl named Estella Whitney, the daughter of a clergyman residing at Hornellsville, N. Y., formed a romantic attachment for one Captain Taylor's Zouaves, and determined to follow him to the South. She was captured at the fire, Mr. Nielson could not be found, but after it was over he was discovered lying on the ground, his face buried in the sand and badly burned by the things which had been thrown on him. It is supposed that waking and excited at all once, striking the ground and scalded at feet, below, and the sand killed him instantly.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A young girl named Estella Whitney, the daughter of a clergyman residing at Hornellsville, N. Y., formed a romantic attachment for one Captain Taylor's Zouaves, and determined to follow him to the South. She was captured at the fire, Mr. Nielson could not be found, but after it was over he was discovered lying on the ground, his face buried in the sand and badly burned by the things which had been thrown on him. It is supposed that waking and excited at all once, striking the ground and scalded at feet, below, and the sand killed him instantly.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A young girl named Estella Whitney, the daughter of a clergyman residing at Hornellsville, N. Y., formed a romantic attachment for one Captain Taylor's Zouaves, and determined to follow him to the South. She was captured at the fire, Mr. Nielson could not be found, but after it was over he was discovered lying on the ground, his face buried in the sand and badly burned by the things which had been thrown on him. It is supposed that waking and excited at all once, striking the ground and scalded at feet, below, and the sand killed him instantly.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A young girl named Estella Whitney, the daughter of a clergyman residing at Hornellsville, N. Y., formed a romantic attachment for one Captain Taylor's Zouaves, and determined to follow him to the South. She was captured at the fire, Mr. Nielson could not be found, but after it was over he was discovered lying on the ground, his face buried in the sand and badly burned by the things which had been thrown on him. It is supposed that waking and excited at all once, striking the ground and scalded at feet, below, and the sand killed him instantly.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A young girl named Estella Whitney, the daughter of a clergyman residing at Hornellsville, N. Y., formed a romantic attachment for one Captain Taylor's Zouaves, and determined to follow him to the South. She was captured at the fire, Mr. Nielson could not be found, but after it was over he was discovered lying on the ground, his face buried in the sand and badly burned by the things which had been thrown on him. It is supposed that waking and excited at all once, striking the ground and scalded at feet, below, and the sand killed him instantly.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A young girl named Estella Whitney, the daughter of a clergyman residing at Hornellsville, N. Y., formed a romantic attachment for one Captain Taylor's Zouaves, and determined to follow him to the South. She was captured at the fire, Mr. Nielson could not be found, but after it was over he was discovered lying on the ground, his face buried in the sand and badly burned by the things which had been thrown on him. It is supposed that waking and excited at all once, striking the ground and scalded at feet, below, and the sand killed him instantly.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A young girl named Estella Whitney, the daughter of a clergyman residing at Hornellsville, N. Y., formed a romantic attachment for one Captain Taylor's Zouaves, and determined to follow him to the South. She was captured at the fire, Mr. Nielson could not be found, but after it was over he was discovered lying on the ground, his face buried in the sand and badly burned by the things which had been thrown on him. It is supposed that waking and excited at all once, striking the ground and scalded at feet, below, and the sand killed him instantly.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A young girl named Estella Whitney, the daughter of a clergyman residing at Hornellsville, N. Y., formed a romantic attachment for one Captain Taylor's Zouaves, and determined to follow him to the South. She was captured at the fire, Mr. Nielson could not be found, but after it was over he was discovered lying on the ground, his face buried in the sand and badly burned by the things which had been thrown on him. It is supposed that waking and excited at all once, striking the ground and scalded at feet, below, and the sand killed him instantly.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A young girl named Estella Whitney, the daughter of a clergyman residing at Hornellsville, N. Y., formed a romantic attachment for one Captain Taylor's Zouaves, and determined to follow him to the South. She was captured at the fire, Mr. Nielson could not be found, but after it was over he was discovered lying on the ground, his face buried in the sand and badly burned by the things which had been thrown on him. It is supposed that waking and excited at all once

TELEGRAPHIC.
Carter & Buchanan,
GARDEN AND GRASS SEEDS AND MANUFACTURERS OF Agricultural Implements,
LOUISVILLE, KY.
A Large and Choice Selection of Fresh and Genuine Home-Grown CARDEN SEEDS.
PUT UP IN BAGS WHOLESALE AND RETAIL
IN PAPER OR BURLAP.
J. D. BONDURANT,
AT HIS
SEED AND AGRICULTURAL WARE-HOUSE,
634 MAIN ST., NEAR SIXTH.
FIELD AND GRASS SEEDS.
To Farmers and Dealers I can offer superior Inducements to purchase my Seeds.
Correspondence promptly answered, and descriptive catalogues of all my Seeds and Farm Products sent on application.

BUCKBY FOR 1861.

WE HAVE THREE HUNDRED OF THESE CELE-BRATED Machines for sale.
We have been sold for three years, and not one of them has failed to give satisfaction.
The Buckby was the first premium at the Fair of 1859, and the first Premium at the Cincinnati and New York Fairs, held in New York in 1860, over the Kentucky Reapers, & it received the Gold Medal.

WARRANTY.

We warrant the Buckby to be well made, of the best quality, and to last for ten years, and we will pay for any damage done by the machine, or any part thereof, except the iron castings, and we warrant the horse needs of a wagon.

PHILADELPHIA, May 21.—Captain Faris, of the prize vessel, denies knowing anything about the blockade, and that the Secession flag found on board belonged to the former captain.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 21.—The report from Martin county, Indiana, last night, about secessionists committing depredations, seems to be erroneous. That is, however, a band of desperadoes that have been plundering and threatening the lives of citizens, and we learn this morning from good authority that men were arrested at Dover Hill yesterday by a mob of 100 men.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—A special dispatch from the Post says a force of 1,000 rebel troops left Harper's Ferry yesterday for Franklin, Va., to resist the passage of Federal troops from Wheeling.

NEW ORLEANS, May 21.—Mr. Russell, the correspondent of the London Times, arrived this morning.

THE UNION MASS ASSOCIATION
WILL BE MADE TO THE ASSURED.

HOPE
Fire Insurance Company
OFFICE,
No. 92 BROADWAY,
NEW YORK.
Cash Capital, $200,000.

INSURANCE.

A LARGE CASH ABATEMENT
FROM RATES CHARGED BY MUTUAL COMPANIES.

WILL BE MADE TO THE ASSURED.

JOHN G. THOMAS, President.

JOHN G. THOMAS, Vice President.

JOHN G. THOMAS, Secretary.

JOHN G. THOMAS, Treasurer.

JOHN G. THOMAS, Auditor.

JOHN G. THOMAS, General Agent.

